1.1 INTRODUCTION

National Homeopathy Research Institute in Mental Health, Kottayam is the only postgraduate academic Institute under the Central Council for Research in Homeopathy, Ministry of Ayush, Govt. of India.

His Holiness Swamy Athuradasji, in the year 1968 established a Homoeopathic Research Centre at the Athurasramam Homoeopathic Medical College at Kurichy village, Sachivothamapuram, Kottayam under a Grant in Aid scheme of the Central Government. This Institute was taken over by the Government of India in 1974 and developed as a Regional Research Institute with a 25-bed indoor facility and started functioning under the set-up of Kerala State Homoeopathic Hospital. This was upgraded in 1982 to the Central Research Institute for Homoeopathy with 50 bedded indoor facilities. In the year 2009, the Institute started functioning in its own building, constructed on 1.78 acres of land allotted by the Government of Kerala. Subsequently, the State Government allotted 7.59 acres of additional land for its further development.

In 2016, the Central Research Institute was further upgraded to that of the National Homoeopathy Research Institute in Mental Health (NHRIMH) with the objective of introducing academic programs to enhance its research outcomes. It is mandated to conduct Postgraduate programs in Psychiatry and Practice of Medicine specialities, PhD programs and paramedical courses. Since its establishment, the Institute has provided high-quality treatment in various clinical conditions and also concentrates on research, especially in psychiatric conditions.

The Institute has a Governing Council (GC) and an Standing Finance Committee (SFC) with functional and financial autonomy for smooth functioning. The rules prescribed by Central Government relating to service matters are applicable to the employees of the Institute. The Institute has comprehensive facilities for research, teaching and patient care.

6.9. PRIVATE PRACTICE/PART-TIME EMPLOYMENT

No Postgraduate trainee enrolled on the MD (Hom) course at NHRIMH shall pursue any course of study (Regular and/or through Correspondence) run by any other College/ Board/University simultaneously. He/ She shall not indulge in any kind of private practice/ coaching or consultation practice and/or shall not accept any part-time/full-time employment in private or Govt. organizations during the period of his/her course period. He/ She shall not attend any private clinics run by any other doctor at any time during the course period and/or involved in any type of fee-sharing practices. Anyone found violating these conditions during the course duration is liable to face disciplinary/legal action as decided by the Competent authority, including termination of his/her studentship.

SECTION-7

7.1. INSTITUTE REGULATIONS

Candidates are required to follow the rules and regulations of the Institute in the letter and spirit and should abide by the regulations of the University. This Institute shall not entertain any application/representation/letter signed collectively addressed to the authority. No correspondence/communication in the form of letters/complaints, individually or collectively, shall be sent to the higher authorities directly without prior permission of the HoD/ Principal. No student shall meet collectively/individually any political person(s)/give an interview to any media or invite any media personnel to the Institute premises without the proper prior permission of the Head of the Institution or Principal. Any student infringing upon this rule shall be dealt with appropriate disciplinary action as decided by the Principal, NHRIMH. The students shall obey the instructions of the academic in-charge/medical superintendent/other faculty members during their training, along with instructions from their respective hods and other departmental in-charges.

1. English shall be the only medium of instruction and examination.
2. The period of training of a Doctor of Medicine in Homoeopathy [MD (Hom)] shall be three years (full-time) duration in the department concerned.
3. Those already possessing MD (Hom) qualification from any University in India recognized by the HCC Act, 1973 or the Medical qualification recognition list of the National Commission for Homeopathy Act 2020(15 of 2020) shall not be eligible for admission to this Institute's MD(Hom) course.
4. The student shall be given graded responsibility in managing and treating patients entrusted to his/her care.

7.2 ATTENDANCE & LEAVE

Students are not allowed to remain absent unauthorised; this will attract disciplinary action. Biometric attendance is compulsory when the student report and leave the institute and they should also mark their attendance in the register maintained in the Academic section and hospitals. All students must be punctual in attending academic activities and clinical duties as assigned by the authorities.

7.2.1 Leave for Postgraduate Trainees:

Leave cannot be claimed as a matter of right. The candidates admitted to the PG course are eligible for 20 days of leave in an academic year and will not be eligible for any other leave. Candidates who are absent themselves for more than the admissible period of casual leave will have their course extended by the number of extra leave availed by them subject to approval by the University and will not allowed to attend the exam unless there is 80% attendance for each subject with completion of Course period as per rules and regulations of KUHS.

Normally, leave shall not be taken long, which will hamper their duty schedule and training. PGTs cannot take continuous leave of more than 10 days, which needs to be approved by the competent authorities well in advance, and no short notice leave application will be entertained by the Institute. The un-availed leave, if any, shall not be carried forward to the next academic year. Unauthorized leave for more than ten days consecutively, including Sundays and holidays at any time during the course period will be treated as discontinuation of the course unless the student satisfies the Principal within a week thereafter by submitting valid and cogent reasons for such absence. Maternity leave is not permissible, and if taken, the course shall be extended as per the norms.

Duty leave, medical leave or any form of leave may be permitted in genuine situations but shall not be considered as attendance to satisfy academic requirements (KUHS Academic General Regulations 2022; Pg.7), and extension of the course period is the rule for compensating such leaves (KUHS ACADEMIC REGULATIONS 2016).

All public holidays are working days for postgraduate students. The students are not entitled to avail any seasonal holidays /study leave.

7.3.CANCELLATION OF STUDENTSHIP

The Principal may, at any time before completion of the Postgraduate course either by his own motion or on receipt of a complaint from any person, after due and proper enquiry and after giving one week's notice to submit a written explanation and/or a personal hearing, order the cancellation of admission to the Postgraduate course. If, in the opinion of the Principal, any candidate had furnished false, fabricated/tampered documents or incorrect information and/or is found to have concealed/suppressed or withheld any information at the time of admission to this Institute or on later dates, shall be dealt with as per law. The practice of unfair means during the training would lead to serious consequences, including legal proceedings. If the Principal/ HoD understands that the candidate is involved in any activity that affects the image/reputation of the Institute or any misconduct with faculties/seniors/staff/patients and/or putting proxy signature in the attendance register, tampering with official documents. These activities would adversely affect the administrative/academic/patient care activities.
